

Grade 2 - Lesson 5

Use Scott Foresman Digital Path (Social Studies) to access student text, activities, and view video footage; types username and password independently when needed

In order to direct students to use this content, either review the materials that came with the Scott-Foresman Social Studies materials and/or use the tutorial provided using this on line link:

http://www.pumaland.net/Staff_Pages/Henry_Anker/Resource_Files/Digital_Path_Tutorial.swf

Students should be introduced to this content early in the year, shown how to use the site in classroom, and also how to use it at home. There is a parent letter in English and Spanish included in the Teacher's materials packet that explains to parents how students can use the content at home.

If you have further questions about using this site with your students, please contact Henry Anker at 310-253-7841 or by email at henry.anker@lausd.net
